Purchasers and users of season passes understand that skiing, snowboarding, walking, or sliding on winter surfaces, driveways, parking lots, ski lodge floors can result in injuries and these are normal risks of participants in winter activities. Skiers/snowboarders must be able to ski or board under control and be aware of man-made and natural fixed objects that could result in collisions and injuries if the skier or snowboarder does not ski or board under control. Skiers/boarders understand that use of ski lifts can result in injury as a result of falls, ski lift malfunctions, or operator error and accepts such risks. It is the parent's responsibility to explain these risks to their children. Wisconsin is an assumed risk state- if you are injured while participating in skiing or snowboarding your involvement was at your own risk.
